HARRIS VERDICT AN EXCEPTION

Many Declare it First Instance in Recent Years When Jury Reached Conclusion.

ON 1st BALLOT IN THIS COURT

Jurors Announced They Had Agreed on Finding After Being Out Half Hour.

THIS SPELLED ACQUITTAL

Scene After Reading of Verdict One That Seldom Has Been Enacted Here.

The verdict of acquittal for Paul Harris on the first ballot in the circuit court late yesterday is said to be the first instance of its kind in the history of the local court in many years. Many Rush county men today recalled the fact that it was not without their memory when a case, either criminal or civil, had been decided finally on the first ballot.

"I have sat on a number of juries in this court," remarked a Rushville man last night, "but have yet to see the time when the jury reached a conclusion either for or against a defendant on the first ballot. And a jury does not often agree so quickly, either."

Just one hour elapsed from the time the jury marched into its room at the back of the court room to decide the fate of Paul Harris until it marched back into the court room with the words written on a small sheet of paper which were to seal the future of Paul Harris.

The jury in reality was not more than a half hour in reaching a verdict. But one ballot was necessary to acquit Paul Harris of the charge of murdering his mother, which was preferred by the grand jury indictment.

It required at least a half hour for the court to be prepared for the return of the jury's finding. People who were in the court room constantly from the time the jury went out until it returned a verdict say it was not more than a half hour from the time the jury received the case until the foreman, Cassius King of Anderson township, rapped on the door and announced the jury had reached a verdict.

New hope appeared on the faces of relatives, friends and sympathizers with Paul Harris when the announcement was made that the jury had arrived at a conclusion. It was the almost universal belief of the people who lingered in the court room that this meant acquittal for Paul Harris.

After the jury's announcement, counsel for the State which had remained in the court room admitted that this development looked like an acquittal for the defendant.

It was the general opinion yesterday that the case of the State was not strong enough to convict and that the jury would likely acquit Paul Harris or would disagree.

The suspense of the brief period between the time the jury announced it had arrived at a verdict and the time it was read in open court was a trying one for relatives and friends of Paul Harris. A few of the women of the party that had been clustered about Paul Harris during the trial began to sob out of pure anxiety, although they realized that an early verdict was favorable to their relative.

Paul Harris was brought into court from the county jail where he had been taken after the jury had been

The doors will be open at two o'clock. The local Christian Scientists announce that the lecture is absolutely free to everyone and that no collection will be taken. Will M. Sparks of this city will introduce the speaker.

Mr. Leonard, being a member of the board of lecturership of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., is well qualified to talk on the subject which he will discuss. This will be Mr. Leonard's only lecture in Indiana at this time. For this reason the local Christian Scientists are expecting people from Indianapolis, Connersville, Shelbyville, Hamilton, Ohio, and other cities to come to hear Mr. Leonard.

UNION MEMORIAL SERVICES JUNE 16

Effort Being Made to Secure Judge Orbison to Deliver Address at Cemetery.

FOUR LODGES REPRESENTED

The Union Fraternal Memorial services will be held Sunday afternoon, June 16. The Knights of Pythias, Red Men, Modern Woodmen and Odd Fellows will be represented in the services. The different lodges will meet on the court house square at 1:30 o'clock and the march to East Hill will begin at 2 o'clock. All the arrangements for the services have not been completed. It is probable that the Rushville band will play. Committees are at work and hope to complete the details in a few days.

An effort is being made to secure Judge Orbison of Indianapolis to deliver the address. The committee has not yet heard from Judge Orbison, but believe he can be secured. Judge Orbison delivered an address here a few weeks ago at the Odd Fellows dedication and made quite an impression. The address as usual will be delivered at the cemetery.

I. & C. DISPATCH LEAVES RAILS

Woman Shouts "We Are All Killed" When West Bound Car Hits Curb.

STOPS ON LAWN NEAR TREE

Cause is Broken Ball of the Rail on Inside—Everyone Escapes Injury.

"Oh, lets get out of here; we are all killed," hysterically shouted a woman as the west bound I. & C. Dispatch left the rails near Harrison street last evening and crashed into the curb. The car was crowded with people returning to Indianapolis after attending the Harris trial. Among those on the car were Henry N. Spaan, one of the attorneys on the case, William H. Blodgett of the Indianapolis News and T. V. Summers, all of Indianapolis.

No one was injured, but all were badly shaken up. The car had rounded the Morgan street curve and when near Harrison street the front trucks suddenly left the rails and carried the car onto the lawn at the residence of O. E. Humes. The car stopped only a short distance from a tree. Most of the women on the car were badly frightened but were quieted by assurance that no one was injured and there was no danger. The rear trucks did not leave the rails.

The car was in charge of Motor-man Brown and Conductor Macey, and was not going at a high rate of speed. If the car had been going fast serious injury might have resulted. The cause of the accident was the broken ball of the rail on the inside. It is supposed that gravel on the track at various times had weakened the rail and it snapped off as the car was passing over. The car was not damaged. The Dispatch is due out of here at 5:04 o'clock.

It required over three hours to put the tracks on the track and the car was taken back to the barns here about 8:30 o'clock. Due to the double track here traffic was not delayed as the out-going and in-coming cars used the other track. The accident occurring at the time it did attracted considerable attention.

HARRIS CASE COSTS COUNTY NEAR $2500

Total is Roughly Figured Today at $2,330.50 But May Not be Exact.

THE ATTORNEYS RECEIVE $950

The Harris case which ended last night with a verdict of an acquittal for Paul Harris, cost Rush county approximately $2,500. The $1,200 appropriated by the county council at two different times at the request of Judge Blair was dissipated by the special attorneys and two blood experts from Indianapolis. John H. Kiplinger of this city and E. K. Adams of Shelbyville received fees amounting to $950 and the remaining amount will be needed to pay the experts. The empanelling of the jury alone cost $734.40. These are the principal items of expense. The remainder of the amount expended was for the bailiffs, deputy sheriffs, stenographers and for feeding and keeping the jury over at nights. The total has been roughly figured at $2,330.50, but may not be exact to the dollar.

NEXT SESSION TO BE HELD HERE

Twenty-Second Annual Convention of Epworth League of District Closes at Arlington.

NEW CABINET IS ELECTED

Is Banner Meeting, With 350 Delegates Present, in History of Organization.

Arlington is suffering today with what might be termed the "swell head" with an individual. The occasion is a rather unusual one. Last night the twenty-second annual convention of the Epworth Leagues of the Methodist church of Connersville district closed in Arlington.

Arlington Leaguers do not have the bulged "feeling" simply because they were hosts to the convention. No, not that. But they do think they are entitled to a little attention because they entertained at the banner Epworth League convention of the district.

For twenty-two years the Leaguers have been holding annual meetings in this church district. But never before in the history of the convention was there such a crowd as attended the convention at Arlington. Three hundred and fifty delegates, representing every league in the district, were registered. Besides a number of other people were in attendance.

The twenty-third annual convention of the League will be held in Rushville in June, 1913. The people of Arlington would like to have it stated that the next session will be at a point seven miles east of Arlington, with good railway connections between.

The last order of business yesterday was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The Rev. J. Tom Senn of Shelbyville was unanimously re-elected president of the district League for another year.

Mrs. Ruth Eaton of Arlington was re-elected first vice-president; Mrs. Rebecca Johnson of this city was elected second vice-president to succeed James Lock of this city; Miss Mary Wolf of Morristown was elected third vice-president to succeed Miss Maude Addison of Carthage; Miss Goddard of Connersville was elected fourth vice-president to succeed Miss Hazel Gordon of Shelbyville.

Grace L. Bake of College Corner, O., was re-elected secretary and John W. Wadsworth of Connersville was re-elected treasurer. Miss Ida Bottles of Connersville, sister of Mrs. V. W. Tevis of this city, was re-elected junior superintendent. All of the elections were made unanimous.

A group picture of all the delegates and others who attended the convention was taken yesterday by C. H. Wolf of this city and are on sale by him. A group picture of the officers was taken also. Included in the group were the members of the old cabinet: the Rev. V. W. Tevis of this city, district superintendent of the church; Ed Woods, president of the Arlington chapter of the Epworth League, and the Rev. W. P. Proctor of Fairmount, formerly the Methodist minister at Arlington.

The program this year was thoroughly enjoyable as well as helpful and instructive. Miss Nelle Muire of this city talked on "China" at the yesterday morning's session. Miss Muire's sister, Miss Winnifred Muire, is a missionary in China, and for that reason the local woman has become acquainted with conditions there. She has been engaged in missionary work herself. Miss Muire's lecture was under the department of the second vice-president, James Lock of this city.

TUBERCULOSIS FATAL.

John Margison, 19 years old, died late yesterday afternoon after a six months illness with tuberculosis at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Margison in Jersey City. Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers and two sisters. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning and burial will take place in Laurel.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late John B. Winship was admitted to probate in the circuit court this afternoon. It specified his property shall be divided among his three children, Alice, Buford and Fanny, and that the oldest shall act as trustee until the youngest is of age.

FLIES AS ADMISSION.

Twenty-five lead house flies or ten blow flies were good for an admission to the Palace theater this afternoon. A barrel with the inscription, "Dr. Hurty, Indianapolis. Handle with Care—Flies" stood at the door and was the recipient of all the "legal tender."

The Rev. V. W. Tevis of this city gave an address. The work of R. H. Johnson of Michigan as song leader was highly appreciated. W. J. Ramsey, the singing evangelist, who has been here in several meetings, was engaged to act in this capacity but at the last moment found it impossible to attend.

The Rev. Peter Jacobs of Arlington Heights, Illinois, and the M. C. B. Mason, D. D., were special speakers at the convention, and their work was highly appreciated. Dinner and supper for the delegates was served in the church yesterday.

LOSES HER PURSE CONTAINING $20

Miss Alice Norris Does Not Realize Loss, However, Until She Starts on Visit.

IT IS FOUND AFTER TWO DAYS

When Miss Alice Norris was ready to leave for the depot yesterday to go to Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, Ohio, she discovered that she had lost her pocketbook which contained the money with which she had expected to pay her car fare and other expenses while she was gone. The pocketbook had twenty dollars in it, but she had no time to search for it then, and cashed a check and went on her way rejoicing. She charged her sister to see if it could not be found. Late yesterday the pocketbook was found in the telephone office where Miss Norris had left the day before. She did not realize her loss for twenty-four hours.

REWARDED FOR HIS WORK

Odd Fellows Give Frank McIlwaine Gold Watch and Chain.

For his efforts in assisting in the work of remodeling the Odd Fellows lodge room, Frank McIlwaine was last night presented with a gold watch, chain and charm by the members of Franklin Lodge No. 35. The charm is an Odd Fellows' emblem. To Mr. McIlwaine much credit is due for the artistic furnishings, and he was made to realize that last night by Will McBride, who made the presentation speech. Mr. McIlwaine designed all the solid oak furniture and did much work himself.

John Margison, 19 years old, died late yesterday afternoon after a six months illness with tuberculosis at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Margison in Jersey City. Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers and two sisters. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning and burial will take place in Laurel.

AN APPEAL LIKELY

And Legality of Gravel Road Law May Be Tested.

Noblesville, Ind., June 6.—In support of the remonstrances containing 133 names which they filed some time ago against the proposed Indianapolis-Noblesville road in their township, one hundred taxpayers of Delaware township, Hamilton county, appeared before the commissioners. The board sustained the remonstrances and dismissed the petition, thus killing the improvement in that township unless the case is appealed to the circuit court and the ruling of the board reversed. It is understood that an appeal is probable.

The board did not consider the question of the constitutionality of the gravel road law, which was raised by the petitioners, who also insisted that the remonstrances should be dismissed because they were contrary to law; that they were not filed within the time limited by law; that they did not contain any statements or reasons for the remonstrances being filed; that they were not sworn to or verified by any person; that they did not show the persons signing them were affected by the proposed highway, and that they were not signed by a greater number of freeholders and voters of the township than were on the petition.

WILSON DELEGATES WON'T STAND FOR IT

Will Carry Ohio Contest to the National Convention.

Toledo, O., June 6.—After a fierce fight on the floor of the convention, Governor Judson Harmon's organization forced the unit rule through the Democratic state convention here by a vote of 597 to 335. The nineteen delegates elected by districts at the state primaries for Woodrow Wilson were instructed to vote as a unit with the twenty-three Harmon delegates elected from the districts. The six votes for delegates-at-large were divided among twelve Harmon supporters with a half vote each, thus giving Harmon a solid delegation to the Baltimore convention. That the nineteen Wilson delegates will not stand by the ruling of the convention, however, was admitted by Mayor Newton D. Baker of Cleveland in the following statement:

"The convention adopted the unit rule by a majority vote. The court of last appeal is the convention at Baltimore. The appeal will be taken and the primary law vindicated by the highest authority in the party."

Mayor Baker led the Wilson men in the fight against the unit rule.

UNCLE SAM WILL TEACH FARMING

G. I. Christie, Purdue Agricultural Superintendent, Says They're Not Filling Their Mission.

NOT THE FARMERS' FAULT
Declares Many County Organizations Become Little More Than Racing Associations.

"The county fair of the present day does not seem to be properly filling its mission, that of carrying to the farmer those ideas which will result in general agricultural progress and a concurrent interest in scientific agricultural matters."

This was the statement made by G. I. Christie, superintendent of

Helped to Keep Down Expenses

Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and feel that they saved me a big doctor's bill." F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists.

agricultural extension at Purdue university, today during a discussion of methods of bettering the county fairs of Indiana.

Agriculturists usually revert to the suggestion that the aims of the societies controlling the county fairs are proper, but in the carrying out of the plans these aims are lost sight of and an entirely variant element is permitted to govern their actions.

Just what this element is and how it shall be eliminated, are questions which should demand the attention of every county fair official in the state. Only then, says Prof. Christie will the interests of agriculture be properly conserved and the industry of the farmer placed on the highest possible educational plane.

"Are the county fairs successful?" Professor Christie was asked.

"From the financial standpoint—undoubtedly, yes," he replied. "The tills of the merchants are run to overflowing during many of the fairs of the present day, due to the influx of purchasers from all over the country."

Professor Christie also believes that the county fairs are entirely too successful in another vital respect—that of amusement of the visitors. The visiting farmers have every opportunity given them, he complains, to forget agricultural features of the fair and seek only an abundance of pleasure. "Side shows, fakers, free vaudeville attractions, loud mouthed ballyhoo men, the feminine snake charmers and the freaks of all the ages—all these unite in an effort to keep the visitor in a mad, whirling surf of hilarity."

When Buying Buy Only The Best

Costs no more but gives the best results.

H. L. Blomquist, Esdaile, Wis., says his wife considers Foley's Honey and Tar Compound the best cough cure on the market. "She has tried various kinds but Foley's gives the best results of all. F. B. Johnson & Co., druggists.

"Then there are the horse racing sections of the average county fair," added Professor Christie. "In many cases these seem to be the main portion of the fair. The 'sport of kings' has a strong attraction for the male visitors, almost as strong as the 'wiggly sisters and their serpentine dances.'"

In fact, declares the Purdue agriculturists, many of the fairs become little more than horse racing associations, supported in part by the county because of their alleged agricultural interest, which may consist of a meager exhibit, shoved away into some obscure corner of the fair grounds, to be visited only by a comparatively few of the people it is designed to reach.

"An ideal county fair, under perfect conditions of organization," he said, "should encourage by means of exhibits the production and improvement of crops, fruits, dairy products, live stock, culinary products and articles of the home—the latter in appreciation of the pertinent value of domestic science to the home happiness of the farmer of today. It should also obtain for the people information, by means of exhibits and demonstrations, on soil management, crop production, and every conceivable phase of the daily life of the agricultural people. It should create an interest in country life among the young men and women of the farm, offering a valid counter-lure to the attractions of the city's gay, white lights and should serve as a social center where the people of the country gather for the consideration of the problems which impede their agricultural progress.

"But in the presence of the side shows," added the Purdue man, "the freaks and the horse racing schedules, as well, these highly desirable results are lost sight of. What little opportunity he has for inspection of exhibit is cast aside for the visit to the exhibits which have been billed as 'amusements,' and which are frequently more degrading than educational.

"The fault is not with the farmer. It is natural for one to seek amusement along such lines until an interest along a more beneficial line is created and strengthened."

They Put an End to It

Charles Sable, 30 Cook St., Rochester, N. Y., says he recommends Foley Kidney Pills at every opportunity because they gave him prompt relief from a bad case of kidney trouble that had long bothered him. Such a recommendation, coming from Mr. Sable, is direct and convincing evidence of the great curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills. F. B. Johnson & Co.

TO BACK GOMEZ GOVERNMENT

The Moral Force of a Strong Force of Marines and Bluejackets on the Island It Is Expected Will Give the Inefficient Cuban Administration Sufficient Backbone to Proceed Against Black Rebels Effectively.

Washington, June 6.—The Cuban situation has advanced one step further toward a third American intervention, the government having sent marines into Cuban territory, followed by an order to four battleships of the Atlantic fleet carrying 1,000 marines to proceed at once to Guantanamo.

These moves were accompanied by and in response to the most alarming reports of conditions in Cuba. All information received in Washington from numerous sources realized fears previously entertained of the progress of the negro uprising. Depredations on American property by the negro rebels are increasing and Americans in Cuba are now demanding that the United States afford that protection to American interests which the Cuban government has failed to provide.

The 450 marines now on Cuban soil in the Guantanamo district under command of Colonel Lucas, are to be used at present only as guards for American sugar estates and other American properties. There is no intention of using the 1,000 additional marines which will be in Guantanamo within the next twenty-four hours for any other purpose. Reports that the American forces are to take part in the pursuit of and attack upon the negroes are false. This work is to be left to the Cuban soldiery.

What is regarded as one of the most sinister phases of the situation in eastern and southern Cuba, as it has developed in the last few days, is the increase in the number of brutal attacks on white women. Four separate instances of such outrages were reported in Oriente province, which from the first has been the principal field of operations of the negroes. In one case the home of a former high official of the provincial government was entered by a band of negroes. The father and his son were bound by the marauders, who then outraged the mother and two daughters of the family in the presence of the two men. The son, succeeding in breaking his bonds, was killed in cold blood on the spot. Though no American women have been attacked thus far, fear holds sway in every American family resident in the affected regions.

INTERVENTION NEAR

At Least That Is the Hope of Foreigners in Cuba.

Havana, June 6.—The majority of Americans and foreigners in Havana will be deeply disappointed and disgusted unless the American government quickly declares itself in favor of intervention. The conditions are such that when it was reported that American marines had landed near Guantanamo and that four battleships were on the way, business took on a boom. Stocks went up and trading on the exchange was lively. Spanish and American merchants rejoiced equally with Cuban planters and capitalists. The officials of the railways owned by English syndicates freely expressed their gratification at the prospect.

News of unspeakable outrages on the wife and daughter of Senor Perez Carbo in the suburbs of Santiago drove the whites mad. Later news was received telling of outrages on fully white women by negroes in the Santiago region. This further stirred up the feelings of the whites. All the Americans living in the Vedado, the wealthy suburb of Havana, are buying shotguns and buckshot. Many families are coming into the city to lodge in the hotels.

The killing of hundreds of negroes in Santa Clara province by the rurales has become known among the colored men here and elsewhere. They feel that their lives are not safe and are quitting the towns and joining the revolutionists. The senate has passed the bill authorizing President Gomez to suspend the constitutional guarantees in the province of Santiago. The senate also voted a million dollars for use of the president in organizing and maintaining whatever force he may deem needful.

WHY THE TITANIC SANK.

SIR RUFUS—What was the use of going at full speed through the ice at night? (MAY)—I supposed they wanted to get out of the ice. They would not want to wait and take a chance of fog coming down. They were justified on a clear night in going through as quickly as possible and even might have increased the speed to get out of the ice-field. —From Testimony Before British Court of Inquiry Into Titanic Disaster.

Congress' Waste.

Many Republican and Democratic senators are saying that a further discussion of the tariff bills is a waste of time, and that Congress should finish its urgent work and then adjourn. They are correct. Of the four or five bills before Congress for the revision of separate schedules, not one has the shadow of a chance of enactment either in this session or in this Congress.

The Republican wool bill, which has the quasi-sanction of the Tariff Board, will not be accepted by the Democratic House. As none of the measures which have been handled by the House over to the Senate have any pretense of being based on anything which the board has urged, they will be vetoed if they ever get within the president's reach. The president gave a warning along this line early in the session. Democrats as well as Republicans know that not one of those measures can get on the statute book in this Congress.

Why waste time further in discussing the tariff? Many important bills are before one or other branch of Congress, but most of them are held up by the tariff embargo. Only a few of the appropriation measures have yet reached the president. Nearly all the talk which Congress emits now is for effect in the canvass, and therefore is of no consequence to the country. Every member of congress would be glad to see adjournment come before the meeting of the Republican National Convention on June 18. Congress can please all its members, and, at the same time, gratify the country, by dropping everything except the appropriation bills, and adjourn the moment these measures are enacted.

ALL BIDS MUST BE BY MAIL AND SEALED.

In order that you may get an idea of the value, below you will find the Jesse French & Sons factory price list and circular letter to their dealers.

TO OUR TRADE.

The general tendency throughout all branches of trade is to have a fixed established standard valuation upon various productions. The middleman offers the public a bona-fide service in purchasing goods of the manufacturer at the lowest possible prices and delivering them to the ultimate consumer at an advance which is in direct proportion to the value of the service rendered. The dealer's profit is a legitimate and necessary one; it must be borne by all people, and the middleman is justly entitled to the same.

We, herewith, quote a reasonable, just and proper set of prices, at which the products of the Jesse French & Sons Piano Factory should be sold. The dealer's profit at these prices is not in any way exorbitant. At the same time fair to the dealer as well as to the customer, and we STRONGLY URGE that all Kreil-French dealers use these prices with their trade, adding to them the freight to the point of delivery.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.

Often and eczema-tortured baby scratches and tears at its itching face until it becomes one mass of sores and the suffering is frightful.

Instead of tying the little one's hands, as some do, merely cover the itching skin with a protecting, soothing application of our new skin remedy, Saxon Salve.

This allays the itching at once, gives the child comfort and allows it to get the needed rest and sleep. More than that, it penetrates the pores of the skin, reaching the very roots of the disease with its germ-destroying, healing power and soon banishes the eruption, leaving the skin smooth and unscarred.

We sell Saxon Salve on a positive guaranty for all sorts of skin diseases. If it does not give satisfaction you get your money back. Try it. P. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Rushville, Indiana.

NEW HEALTH LAW BEING PLANNED

Authorities Will Ask Indiana Legislature's Help in Modernizing
The Statutes.

HYGIENE SCHOOL PROPOSED

Dr. John N. Hurty Will Direct Campaign to Bring About Higher Standards.

It has become known that the health authorities of Indiana will turn practically their entire attention during the coming session of the Indiana Legislature toward a fight for the enactment of a statute which will raise the basis of public health work in the State to a plane that so far has not been reached by any State in the Union. An entire rejuvenation of the State hygiene work and a uniform basis of qualifications for public health officers, higher than ever before, is planned.

Dr. John N. Hurty, state health commissioner, is the man who will direct the movements of the campaign to bring about a higher standard among public health officers in the State. The intended bill may not pass at the coming session of the Legislature, but within four years it will be a part of the state's health statutes, Dr. Hurty declares.

The proposed statute will centralize the public hygiene work in each county and make the State Board of Health the guiding power behind the activities in all parts of the State. A coincident phase of the plans now being worked out will be the establishment of a school of public hygiene in connection with the Indiana University School of Medicine, plans for which already have been discussed.

The new system of health work in Indiana as planned will have the county health official in complete charge of the health work in his district and the city health official will be under his direction. Because such importance will be attached to the county office, a clause in the statute will provide that each county official shall have a degree from some such institution for the study of public hygiene in a scientific manner, as is proposed by the State University plan.

Some discrimination in the ease of city authorities in Indianapolis probably will be made in the statute. The Indianapolis health work, under its present organization, is progressing in such a way that there is little room for criticism of any sort, according to the State health officials, and a clause in the proposed statute will eliminate cities of more than 100,000 population from the provisions of the act.

The need of a rejuvenation of the health work in many parts of the State has been apparent for several years, according to Dr. Hurty, and he and his associates have planned thoroughly the remedy that is to make Indiana the foremost State in regard to public administration, as it is the foremost in many other lines of public health work.

The proposed statute will hold the county health officer responsible for practically each action of the health officers in his charge, making the office of the county official bear approximately the same importance to the city and township authorities as the State Board of Health now bears to the various county officials.

It is probable that the statute will elicit much discussion and probably some antagonism during the coming session of the Legislature because of some of the drastic reforms it will provide for, but the champion of education of the people and the lawmakers is to be carried on to the finish, regardless of whether the statute passes this session or next, the State officials declare.

The lack of uniformity of administration of the health laws in many counties is one of the chief reasons for the proposal of the new statute. Since Indiana has become one of the greatest of the American commonwealths in the question of collecting statistics on health of the State's people the need for scientifically minded officials at the head of the health work in all divisions of the State has become apparent.

The work of spreading the gospel of preventive medicine also has called for more efficient service in the various counties, and it is believed that a decrease in epidemics throughout the State would be noted within a year after such a law as is to be proposed has been placed on the statute books. The work of the State University in co-operation with the present plans will represent a step forward such as few universities in the country have been able to take, according to the Indiana health authorities.

The State University authorities have been secretly discussing the feasibility of initiating such a school for the training of public health officials, and those on the inside of the movement assert that within a short time an announcement of the establishment of the school will be forthcoming. A degree will be received by those who complete the course, which is intended to embrace a thorough medical course as well as a literary course, and a special course in public health work. The intended statute providing for the employment of health officials of a uniformly high grade of experience and training has not been drawn up yet, but work on its preparation will start at once, health officials declare.

Italian emigration to the United States is reported to be again increasing. Attempts of the Italian government to divert emigrants to Tripoli, in spite of liberal inducements, have not so far been successful.

As the result of many years of experimenting in England, a new substitute for hard rubber, gutta-percha and leather has been announced. It is a product of seaweed.

BIGGEST CLASS EVER SENT OUT

Indiana University Breaks All Records This Year.

EIGHTY-THIRD COMMENCEMENT

Number of Graduates This Year Will Be 380, Which Is the Largest Number to Receive Degrees From This State Institution in Any of the Years of Its Existence—Two Other Records Are Broken.

Bloomington, Ind., June 6.—At the eighty-third annual commencement exercises to be held June 19, Indiana university will confer the largest number of degrees that it has conferred in any of the years of its existence. The total this year will be 380. Of this number 230 will be bachelors of arts, and fifty-two will be masters of arts. Both of these are record breaking figures. Forty-seven bachelors of laws will be constituted, and a similar number of doctors of medicine. Four doctors of philosophy bring up the total.

Mrs. M. A. McLaughlin, 512 Jay St., LaCrosse, Wis., writes that she suffered all kinds of pains in her back and hips on account of kidney trouble and rheumatism. "I got some Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them for a few days there was a wonderful change in my case, for the pain entirely left my back and hips and I am thankful there is such a medicine as Foley Kidney Pills." AMUSEMENTS

Stock productions of the highest class have become an annual summer amusement feature at the Shubert Murat Theater, in Indianapolis, and on Monday, June 10, there will be installed a third and entirely new company, which promises to make the summer season of 1912 the most notable yet in the history of this handsome and luxuriously cool playhouse. The leading woman of the new company is Miss Florence Rockwell who has been seen in Indianapolis as leading woman with such stars as Maelyn Arbuckle in "The Round Up" and Guy Bates Post in "The Nigger". The leading man is Charles H. White, an actor who has won his spurs with both stock companies and traveling organizations. Others in the cast, all of them with metropolitan reputations, are Eileen Errol, Frances Nelson, Lillian Keller, Geo. C. Stayley, R. Hourse-Peters, John Cumberland, Edward Langford, and P. Creighton Hale. The plays will be staged under the personal direction of Percival Aylmer, recognized as an artist in his line, and Theodore A. Dancet will act as stage manager. With this array of talent, patrons of the Murat Theater are assured a very high class of stock entertainment every week.

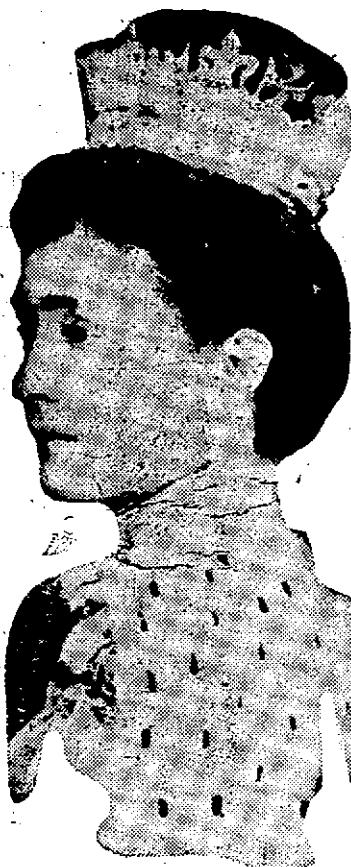

The season will open Monday with "A Woman's Way," a sparkling comedy by Thompson Buchanan, a young American newspaper man who has given every evidence in this play of developing into a second Clyde Fitch. Miss Grace George appeared in Indianapolis in the Buchanan comedy in the winter of 1910, and with it she made one of the most agreeable impressions of her career. The theme of the play is clever and the handling of it witty. A wife who seems to be losing the love of her husband to another woman—a confirmed flirt—pluckily determines to fight to retain that love as she had fought in the first place to gain it. She accordingly invites "the other woman" into her home to meet all her friends, and during the course of the evening shows her up in her true light by the most adroit and seemingly innocent artifices.

DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT

Wife of Canada's Governor
General Is Seriously Ill.

Montreal, June 6.—The Duchess of Connaught is suffering from a grave attack of peritonitis, brought on by a sudden attack of appendicitis. Her royal highness is under observation at the Royal Victoria hospital. The vice regal staff make no secret of their apprehension and are waiting with the keenest anxiety the final report of the medical men as to the necessity or otherwise of an operation. This, however, the doctors are unable to decide for the next two or three days, it is stated.

MORE GANG CLASHES WORRY THE POLICE

New York Troubled By Feud Battles.

New York, June 6.—Last Sunday night, when Big Jack Zelig amused himself and his gun men in a Coney Island drum by slashing a cross mark on the cheek of a squaler, while Wanda, the blonde, looked on and laughed, he reopened the feud between his gang—the old Kid Twist gang of thieves and blackmailers—and the Jack Sirocco band. And the series of raids and fights in which Big Jack was the first to go under, has continued for two days in darkness and daylight under the noses of the police, producing a record for New York city life that of a Montana mining camp or of the old days of a Kentucky mountain town.

The gang clashes and taxicab forays which have worried the police department more than anything else since Judge Rosalsky found a bomb in his mail, have resulted in two more pistol battles, in which two men were wounded. And the air is full of rumors of more trouble to come.

Fifty detectives have been detailed to cover the districts where the gangs have been pistolling each other and non-combatants.

Gamble Probably Defeated.
Sioux Falls, S. D., June 6.—Thomas Sterling claims to have defeated United States Senator Gamble in the state wide primaries, but Gamble does not concede his defeat.

Suicide of Loan Shark Victim.
Indianapolis, June 6.—Mute testimony tells a story that ended on a slab in the city morgue where the body of Barney Meyers, seventy-five years old, was placed after being dragged from White river. In a coat pocket Coroner Durham found a card telling of Meyers' struggle to pay a loan shark and of his failure. The coroner said the indications were that Meyers ended it all in White river.

Body Cut to Pieces.
Muncie, Ind., June 6.—An unidentified Roumanian, employed as a section laborer by the Big Four railroad, met a terrible death in the yards west of this city when his foot caught in a frog, and, being unable to extricate it, was compelled to view a freight train back down on him. His body was cut to pieces.

Must Serve His Time.
Richmond, Ind., June 6.—Edward Bodiker, a paroled convict, was arrested here, charged with larceny, and will be returned at once to the state reformatory to serve the remainder of his sentence. He was paroled two years ago.

Worried Over Money.
Winchester, Ind., June 6.—Jefferson Raps, aged sixty-seven, committed suicide by hanging at his home at Farmstead. In a note addressed to his wife he said dependency over financial affairs was the cause of the suicide.

PREPARING TO LET
BIG STORM LOOSE

Serious Charges Against Roosevelt Administration.

Washington, June 6.—Over the case of W. R. Jones, just pardoned after conviction of land frauds in Oregon, a great storm is about to break over Detective William J. Burns, former President Roosevelt, Postmaster General Hitchcock, Francis J. Heney and many of the well known men.

The department of justice has original documents showing that Burns and his agents canvassed all prospective jurors and picked out only such as were sure to convict. It is expected the Roosevelt men will make charges that the alleged jury fixing is brought out at this time for political purposes.

President Taft has all the papers, and it is understood he will pardon Hendricks and Mays. Applications on their behalf are now pending in the department of justice.

The charges originated through the discovery in Oregon of a forgotten box containing records left by Burns and Heney after the land fraud trials. In this box were hundreds of telegrams and letters and lists of jurors with comments on their qualifications in the handwriting of Detective Burns and his agents.

Case Will Be Reopened.

Washington, June 6.—Disagreeing with the decision of Federal Judge Henford at Seattle, depriving Leonard Oleson of his citizenship because he is a Socialist, Attorney General Wickensham has instructed the United States attorney at Seattle to assist Oleson in reopening the case to seek a reversal of the decision.

HISTORIC FIGHT
HAS NOW BEGUN

National Committee Takes Up
Republican Contests.

PRESIDENT'S WISHES PREVAIL

In Accordance With Mr. Taft's Expressed Desire the Committee Will Admit to Inquisitorial Chamber Representatives of the Various Press Associations, That Country May Be Kept Advised of the Battle.

Chicago, June 6.—When the Republican national committee assembled today to take the preliminary steps toward hearing and deciding the contests, the patter of the musketry on a battlefield which promises to become historic in the Republican party began.

The desultory firing began immediately after the arrival of most of the members of the Republican national committee. Their entrance to the convention was coincident with the arrival of Director William B. McKinley of the national Taft bureau and of Senator Joseph M. Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, and their corps of secretaries, etc. McKinley and Dixon almost instantly issued bulletins respectively for Taft and Roosevelt. But with the national committeemen on the field, little attention was paid to these statements of claims and counter-claims.

The information gathered from the most reliable sources is to the effect that at today's meeting of the national committee it will be demonstrated that about thirty-five of its members and possibly more will uphold the subcommittee of arrangements in its stand that Senator Elihu Root of New York shall be the temporary chairman of the convention. It is even stated that thirty-eight members of the fifty-three will support Senator Root. It was further stated that, in view of Colonel Roosevelt's opposition to him, there is a movement already inaugurated to make Senator Root the permanent as well as the temporary chairman of the committee. Chairman Harry S. New of the subcommittee of arrangements had long talks with influential and important committeemen over the proposition of President Taft that newspaper correspondents should be present at the hearing of the contests before the national committee. It was apparent that the national committee desired acquiescence in President Taft's wishes, but they pointed out that there are nearly 1,000 newspaper correspondents on the field at this moment. Therefore the committee decided to admit only two representatives of each of the several news associations.

GEORGE S. NIXON

United States Senator From Nevada
Dead at Washington.

Washington, June 6.—Senator George S. Nixon of Nevada is dead after an illness of less than a week. The senator was operated on last Thursday for the removal of a nasal abscess. Previously he had been in good health to all appearances and was about his official duties in the senate. Hope for his recovery was practically given up Monday night, and the senator's wife, who was in San Francisco, was advised by wire and left for Washington at once, accompanied by her son. Arrangements for the funeral probably will be withheld until the arrival of Mrs. Nixon.

Senator Nixon was fifty-three years old in April. He had served one term in the senate and began his second term March 4, 1911.

HER LIFE SPARED

Commutation of Sentence Voted in the Case of Mrs. Cusumano.

Boston, June 6.—Mrs. Lena Cusumano, who was in the death house at the state prison, awaiting execution this week for the murder of her husband at Hull last year, has escaped the electric chair. The executive council voted unanimously in favor of commutation of sentence, but was unanimously opposed to commuting in the case of her companion in crime, Enrico Masciotti, alias Harry Marshall. The latter was executed at 12:18 last night, but the woman was removed to the woman's prison at Sherbourne, where she will serve a life sentence.

OLIVER CULTIVATORS

Absolute and distinct advantages over other implements are what count and the following are to be found in the Ohio Cultivator

The work is done perfectly, because of the parallel gangs, always held a uniform distance apart, always maintaining full depth and never shirking when going through hard ground.

This good work is done with the greatest ease by the operator, because of the power lift for the gangs, provided by draft of team, and the pivotal sea bar guide which shifts the gangs, besides pivoting the pole to guide the machine. The Oliver is absolutely the easiest to guide of any cultivator invented.

It is easy on the team, because of perfect draft lines—therefore no neck weight or neck draft. Light to draw, because of short frame, and otherwise novel construction.

Automatic Balance Frame. The movement of one lever assisted by the team raises and lowers both gangs, and at the same time balances the frame.

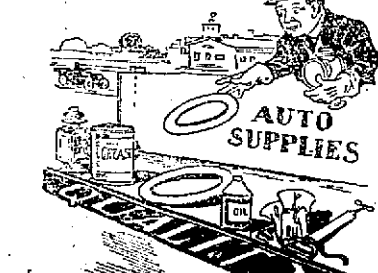

For narrow rows, the wheels can be set 32 inches between the tires and still give ample room for guiding where planting is done badly out of check.

As a hard ground cultivator it has no equal. There are no springs or high hitch to draw the shovels out of the ground, which are, therefore, always hungry for their work.

It is a profitable cultivator for the farmer, as it does not wear out easily, never breaks, saves time and manual labor, and does faster and better work than is possible with any other.

charged, and the bailiff was ordered to bring in the jury. The twelve men who had been deciding what Paul Harris future would be marched in slowly, so slow in fact that few people in the court room could stand up bravely under the strain.

When the jurors had taken their seats the foreman approached the bench with the verdict in his hand. Judge Blair requested him to take his usual seat, and then rapped for order. The court announced that he would not for an instant tolerate any demonstrations of any sort. He ordered Sheriff Bebout to stand back in the court room and bring before the bar of justice any person who violated his orders in the slightest degree.

This is in rare contrast to the scenes that have been enacted in some courts at the conclusion of a trial to which great interest has been attached. The wildest scenes have been acted right in Indiana courts. At the conclusion of the Stibbens trial at Bloomfield recently, when the verdict acquitting two sons of the charge of murdering their father, the friends of the two men gave a demonstration that has hardly been equaled in the history of the courts.

But the scene in the court room here about six o'clock yesterday evening was one of unusual solemnity. The sobs of women were audible. Men with moist eyes stood by and watched the proceedings with awe as Bailiff Jim Casady carried the small sheet of paper from the jury foreman.

The paper quivered when he handed it to Birney Spradling, deputy clerk. Every eye was fastened on that piece of paper. The clerk's deputy opened the folded sheet with a firm and steady hand and read the verdict: "We the jury find the defendant not guilty. Cassius King, foreman."

"Gentlemen, is this your verdict?" asked Judge Blair.

"It is," replied the foreman.

Judge Blair then thanked the members of the jury for the fair and impartial manner in which they tried the case. He said he realized the hardships which men of families had to undergo in doing jury service and the amount to which the citizens of Rush county were indebted to them.

"The prisoner is released," said Judge Blair turning to Paul Harris.

It was a tense moment when the eight simple words had been read by the deputy clerk. There was an instant of tense silence, and then Paul Harris turned to his wife, who has been his almost constant companion during the ordeal of the trial, and buried his head in her bosom. They were in one another's embrace for several moments.

Mrs. Paul Harris has been unusually brave during the trial. She has not been swayed by her emotions in view of the public eye. She has been a pale and silent partner by her husband while the State's attorneys hurled accusations at him and the attorneys of the defense replied to the charges.

Not a tear strayed into her eyes last night after the verdict had been read and her husband sobbed in her arms. Within five minutes after the reading of the verdict, however, she collapsed and gave vent to her pent up emotions. Her husband and relatives attempted to quiet her.

Paul rushed to the jury box to express his appreciation of their verdict, and shook the hand of every juror. He was not alone in congratulating the jurors. Nearly every person that remained in the court room—at least a hundred—sought to thank the jury for its action. Paul Harris was also congratulated by his friends who had gathered.

Sobbing and weeping was not an uncommon sight in the court room at that time. Any number of women who had no interest whatever in the case grasped the hand of every member of the jury and voiced their appreciation.

The two dozen or more relatives and friends who have been giving public proof daily of their belief in Paul Harris' innocence by sitting by his side and comforting him were a happy lot. They cried and laughed at intervals.

Among those who have protested Paul's guilt from the very first and who have been with him almost constantly while he was in court, were Mrs. Clara Young of Kokomo and William P. White of this county, brother and sister respectively of Minna C. Harris, Paul's mother, whom he was alleged by the grand jury to have killed. Mr. White was a witness in the case and could not take a seat with the defendant until after he had testified. Miss Roberta Harris of Columbus, Ohio, aunt of Paul, has been in attendance at the trial daily as has Miss Grace Kitchen Young, daughter of Mrs. Young of Kokomo. Many Rushville and Rush county friends of L. B. Harris and his son have been seated with the defense all during the trial.

Tuesday, the third day in the week, has butted into the Harris case unceremoniously. With but few exceptions any steps of importance in the case have been taken, on Tuesday. The verdict of the jury is about the only important exception.

It was Tuesday, March 12, that the farm house at Ashland farm burned down, while Mrs. Harris was alone, and her remains were found in the ruins late that day. After an investigation of six weeks Dr. A. G. Chauek, county coroner, returned a murder verdict Tuesday, April 23. The next step in the case was the action of the grand jury on Tuesday, May 7, when Paul Harris was arrested on the indictment. On Tuesday, May 28 the introduction of evidence was begun, and a week later, Tuesday, June 4, both sides rested their case with the jury.

The case has attracted unusual attention not only here but all over the State of Indiana. It has been the common topic of conversation in Rushville for two weeks. The galaxy of keen lawyers that were visiting each other for the ascendancy served to arouse the interest in the case to even a greater degree.

The crowds at the trial are without precedent in Rush county. Prominent among the murder trials in Rush county in recent years was the Bankert trial. But this did not attract the attention of the people as did the one which just closed. The uncertainty of the outcome and the prominence of the family involved to make the case one of more than ordinary interest.

The great majority of the crowd each day has been women. There are many Rush county and Rushville women who did not miss a day of the trial after the introduction of the evidence. The crowd was probably the largest yesterday, the closing day. Many remained in the court room at noon without a bit of food so as to keep their seat. And when court adjourned at noon, three deputies had to clear an aisle at the door so what few people cared to leave for their dinner could get out. When the court room was filled, which was a very few minutes after the morning crowd had departed, the doors to the court room were locked and no one was allowed admission.

LOCALS TO PLAY PLAZA SPECIALS

Former Naval Club Will be Attraction
Here Sunday—Expect Fast Game.

CONNERSVILLE HERE JUNE 16

Rushville will present the same strong line up in Sunday's game with the Indianapolis Naval Club recently renamed the Plaza Specials, that it did last Sunday. Avery will again be in the box for the locals with Spacey behind the bat. What is thought to be a valuable addition to the team is Waibright, who will be seen in right field. Eddie Cook, the sensational second base man, will Charles Thomas, at first will be in the regular line up the rest of the season. The Plaza Specials are considered one of the strongest teams in Indianapolis and a fast game is expected.

One week from Sunday a game of special interest to the fans will be played when Connersville will again be the attraction. Rushville expects to get revenge for the 11 to 0 defeat of a few weeks ago.

THE TOWN TALK.

It is told of one of our good citizens who lives a mile or so from town, that he rode a horse here one rainy night and hitched it to the rack, says the Andersonville Herald. He became so interested in the traction talk that he forgot the horse and walked home. He never discovered his mistake until he went to feed early the next morning. He walked back to town and found the horse tied where he had left it.
